SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2014
S10: Featured Presentation - Latest Developments in Informatics Certification and Accreditation
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM; International Ballroom Center (Washington Hilton)

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2014
S35: Didactic Panel - Evolving Career Landscapes in Biomedical and Health Informatics
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM; International Ballroom Center (Washington Hilton)

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2014
S73: Interactive Panel - Towards Developing an Undergraduate Interprofessional Biomedical Informatics Course
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM; Georgetown (Washington Hilton)

Informatics Education and Workforce Development
Posters explore efforts to create a trained HIT workforce to support the national “build out” of clinical information systems and the informatics contributions embedded within this movement.

Monday, November 17
Tuesday, November 18
- Patient Safety Education using an Electronic Error Reporting System
- The Texas Advanced Computing Center: A Complete Scientific Discovery Environment for Biomedical Informatics and Health Science Research
- Automation in Healthcare: is Automation Bias a side effect?
- Deploying Informatics Tools to Improve an Interactive Medical Education Experience

Informatics in Health Professional Education
Posters highlight the application of information technology in health professional education and promote the teaching of informatics as a discipline.

Monday, November 17
- Virtual Learning Environment: a Proposal for Teaching Urgency and Emergency Care for Nursing Students through WebQuest
- An Informatics Approach to Building a Surgical Residents Log

Tuesday, November 18
- Does Allowing Repeated Tries Without Penalty for Incorrect Responses Increase Guessing?
- Novel Clinical Procedures Reference at the Point of Care with Google Glass