AMIA 2012 Symposium – Global Health Informatics Presentations
Below is a listing of the Global Health Informatics presentations in the AMIA 2013 agenda. If you have a Global Health Informatics presentation that was overlooked, please let us know at ghi-wg@lists.amia.org.

17 November – Sunday
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM - Kalorama
S09: Podium Presentations - Workflow and administration
   Applying the Extended Benefits Model in a Resource-Constrained Country: Uncovering the Foundation
   JoAnna Hillman; Keith P. Waters

18 November – Monday
1:45 PM - 3:15 PM - Georgetown
S26: Panel
   How Fit is Electronic Health Data for its Intended Uses? Exploring Data Quality across Clinical, Public Health, and Research Use Cases
   Shaun J. Grannis; Brian E. Dixon; Siaw T. Liaw; Michael G. Kahn; Hamish Fraser

5:00 PM - 6:30 PM - Columbia Hall
Poster Session I
   • Integrating Touchscreen Laboratory Order-Entry with OpenELIS: An Exercise in Interoperability
     Jeremy U. Espino; Soyapi L. Mumba; Gerald Douglas; William B. Lober
   • Toward a Model of Tailored Clinical Audit and Feedback
     Zach Landis-Lewis; Harry Hochheiser; Gerald Douglas; Rebecca Crowley

19 November – Tuesday
5:00 PM - 6:30 PM - Columbia Hall
Poster Session II
   • Biosurveillance using Routinely-collected Outpatient Data in Malawi
     Soyapi L. Mumba; Gerald Douglas; Jeremy U. Espino
   • National roll out of the Rwanda OpenMRS electronic medical record to improve healthcare delivery
     Gilbert Uwayezu; Christian Munyaburanga; Richard Gakuba; Hamish Fraser

5:30 PM - 6:15 PM – International Ballroom East
International Reception

6:15 PM – 7:30 PM – International Ballroom East
GHI Working Group Meeting