What will the attendee be able to do after being in your session?

This section should describe your objective of what the attendee will be able to do with the knowledge you are sharing. Sharing “Best Practices” is a pillar of the AMIA 2019 Clinical Informatics Conference; this format is an ideal way for presenters to share tools and strategies that helped them deal with a specific problem.

Description of the Problem or Gap

This template should be used as a starting point for AMIA submissions. A number of Word styles, all beginning with the word “AMIA”, are available for use in your submissions. What HIT tool is poorly designed, or non-existent, or creating barriers to better clinician performance or patient/population outcomes? Define the problem or gap here.

It is important to review the AMIA Call for Participation (CFP) where types of submissions considered and general requirements for each submission type are listed. All submissions must conform to the format and presentation requirements described in the CFP and at the submission site.

Conclusion

Your conclusion goes at the end, followed first by Attendee’s Take-away Tool, then followed by References, which must follow the Vancouver Style (see: www.icmje.org/index.html). References begin below with a header that is centered. Only the first word of an article title is capitalized in the References.

Attendee’s Take-away Tool
This text describes the take-away tool. The presenter may use an illustration to depict the tool on the 2nd page of the submission abstract.

Use of Knowledge Acquired at Previous AMIA Events
Did something you learned at a previous AMIA event contribute to your awareness of the problem or to the solution or strategy you describe in this submission? If so, mention it here. This section may go over to an additional page and will not be counted against you if you have this as an your extra page in the page count.
